

CAPITAL COMMUNITY COLLEGE OFFERS ACCELERATED CREDIT COURSES

WEST HARTFORD - Capital Community College's Division of Continuing Education has announced a series of accelerated credit course offerings to be held in West Hartford.

Designed to work around the working person's schedule, CCC's accelerated courses offer the opportunity to obtain valuable credits in as little as two month's time in most cases.

Additionally, these courses may be free for both current Adult Education students and those who have recently obtained their GED and are looking to hone skills needed for the transition to college.

The first course, Pre-Algebra, begins on Monday, Feb. 9. The second, Writing Paragraph To Essay, Tuesday, Feb. 10. Courses will be held at Conard High School.

For more information on these and other Capital Community College offerings in West Hartford as well as tuition payment possibilities and eligibility, call (860) 906-5046.