

COURSE OUTLINE
ART 100: Art Appreciation

SECTION I

SUBJECT AREA AND COURSE NUMBER: ART G100-01

COURSE TITLE: Art Appreciation

COURSE CATALOG DESCRIPTION: An introduction to the broad spectrum of the visual arts, past and present. Emphasis is upon the visual language employed by artists and the historical and cultural significance of works of art.

LECTURE HOURS PER WEEK: 3

CREDIT: 3

SECTION II

A. Scope: Students in Art Appreciation will read, debate, write and create art that will reinforce lectures in understanding creative concepts, analyzing artistic methodologies and exploring aesthetic realities.

B. Required work: Students must complete all required reading, papers, artwork and participate in scheduled field(s) to be successful in this course.

C. Attendance and Participation: Participation in class discussions is critical, therefore attendance will be monitored and students will be notified if their attendance is a problem.

D. Method of Instruction: Method of instruction will be lecture, enhanced with visual aids such, as but not limited to slides, films and original art. Guest artists and speakers may also be engaged in participatory discussions.

E: Objective, Outcomes and Assessment:

LEARNING OBJECTIVE	LEARNING OUTCOMES	ASSESSMENT METHODS
To demonstrate an understanding of:	Students will:	As measured by
1. Responsibly for ones education	(a) attend regularly and on time (b) complete all assignments on time (c) taking responsibility for ones education	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● attendance record ● class records ● assignment records
2. Express ideas, opinions and concepts in a clear and effective manner	(a) develop techniques of self evaluation (b) practice verbal expression	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● class participation ● debates ● art project
3. Critical thinking as it pertains to historical events	(a) analyze critical movements in the history of art	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● quizzes ● class discussions ● papers

F: Text and Materials: Living with Art, Sixth Edition, Gilbert/Getlein

G: Information Technology: Course will use educational aids such as films, slides and internet.